

HOW TO BOOK YOUR CIVIL CEREMONY AND OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Below you will find details of how to go about holding your civil wedding ceremony in Killarney, Ireland.

The Registrar below inform you of the availability of dates and times. Civil ceremonies in Killarney are conducted by the Registrar from Monday to Friday each week.

Mary T. O'Shea

Civil Registration Office

St. Joseph's Road

Killarney

County Kerry

Ireland

Tel: +353 (0)64 663 2251

Fax: +353 (0)64 663 2239

Contact the Randles Hotel to check on the availability of dates in conjunction with the Registrar. Once approval has been granted for your civil marriage ceremony to take place, you will be able to proceed with the exciting business of organising your wedding reception. Our wedding team is here to help. Please do however note the following:

- Ceremonies are not permitted outside the hotel and room must be accessible to the general public for the duration of the ceremony
- No alcohol may be consumed or be available in the room for one hour prior to and the duration of the ceremony.
- No religious artefacts, icons or symbols may be displayed in the room
- A notice must be prominently displayed in the hotel foyer with details of the intended spouses of the civil marriage and ceremony time
- Any person wishing to make contact with the Registrar must be allowed to do so